Legacies to Oxford
Through the centuries, legacies and bequests have played a vital part in Oxford's success. Almost every part of the collegiate University has benefited from gifts in the wills of alumni, friends and supporters. A gift in your will could help support the University as a whole, a specific college or an aspect of University life with which you have a particular affinity.

Privacy Notice
How we use your data
The personal data you provided on this form will be used by Americans for Oxford and the University of Oxford to process your donation in accordance with our contractual and legal obligations, and to meet our legitimate interest of alumni and supporter engagement, fundraising and stewardship. We will use your data to: record information about your giving, including any gift agreements, memberships, or correspondence relevant to your donation; communicate with you about the impact of your donation and other appeals that may be of interest to you; record your updated contact details and mailing preferences; record your preferences regarding the external reporting of your donation; and record information about your willingness and capacity to support our charitable objectives, which may be provided by you or from information in the public domain.

Who has access to your data
The data you provide will be stored and shared across the collegiate University of Oxford, including with its relevant clubs and societies if appropriate, in accordance with the University’s policies and procedures via our shared relationship management system. You have the right to object to the processing of your giving, including any gift agreements, memberships, or correspondence relevant to your donation; communicate with you about the impact of your donation and other appeals that may be of interest to you; record your updated contact details and mailing preferences; record your preferences regarding the external reporting of your donation; and record information about your willingness and capacity to support our charitable objectives, which may be provided by you or from information in the public domain.

How long we keep your data
We consider our relationship with our donors, supporters and alumni to be lifelong and we will retain most of your data indefinitely unless you request otherwise.

Your rights
You have the right to opt-out of direct marketing at any time. You also have the rights to request access to and correction or erasure of your data; to request transfer of your data to another party; or to object to the processing of your data or request that such processing is restricted. For full details on how we treat your information, including your rights, please see our Privacy Notice at www.development.ox.ac.uk/privacy-notice or you can request a hard copy from our Database team. If you would like to exercise your rights, opt-out, or are dissatisfied with the way we have used your information, please contact us at database@devoff.ox.ac.uk or telephone +44 (0)1865 611530. You may also contact our Data Protection Officer at dpo@ox.ac.uk. If you remain dissatisfied, you may lodge a complaint with the UK’s Information Commissioner’s Office at: https://ico.org.uk/concerns/

Americans for Oxford
Gifts from our US donors are received by Americans for Oxford. Americans for Oxford, Inc. (AFO) is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization (recognized by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service) which seeks gifts to benefit the University and its colleges. In compliance with IRS regulations, the Board of Directors of AFO maintains complete discretion over allocation of gifts it receives. Gifts to AFO qualify for an income tax deduction to the full extent allowed by law.

Charitable Status
All gifts are processed by Americans for Oxford and the University of Oxford Development Trust Fund (OUDT). Your kind gift will be held in the specific OUDT fund whose purposes most closely correspond to the area you wish to support and shall then be applied in accordance with the purposes of the relevant fund. Details of the funds can be found at www.admin.ox.ac.uk/trusts/oudt. Wishes expressed shall not give rise to new trusts or other legally binding obligations.

The objects of OUDT are to procure, assist and secure the advancement of education, learning, teaching, scholarship and research at or in connection with the University of Oxford, its colleges and societies. OUDT is administered by the University and established for a special purpose in connection with the University. It is therefore an exempt charity for the purpose of charity legislation. As such, it has full charitable status; albeit it is exempt from the requirement to register as a charity with the Charities Commission, and therefore does not have a Charity registration number. OUDT’s HMRC reference number is XN80595.
